Testing

I have a few rare video games I am auctioning this week including the exclusive Dead-Light game never released for the Playstation 2 and more...

Check out my auctions!

This auction is for:

Rare Nintendo 64 video game prototype (testing) cartridge!

On the front of this it says: NUS-16F32S and there is another number written below that but it is hard to read.. It looks like 50M-356N but I am not sure.

Below that is a label that says Ready 2 Rumble Round 2.

On the back of the cartridge it says: 036 Nintendo.

I cannot test this out because I do not have a Nintendo 64 but it is in good condition. It is probably the game stated on the title because this came from a company that tested and worked on video games. Sold as is because of this.

I will update this ad with any new information or answers to questions so check back at the bottom of this ad for any updates.

Sold as is. Final sale. No returns. Shipping free.

Payment due the same day the auction ends. I ship within 3 business days.
