RARE PAL N64 Rugrats in Paris: The Movie Prototype Nintendo 64 rom_PAL-10-16

Rugrats in Paris: The Movie is a video game based on the movie of the same name from the Nickelodeon animated series, Rugrats. The group of young children in a European theme park. A Dreamcast version of the game was planned to be made, but it was later cancelled.

Tommy Pickles' father has been sent to Europe in order to fix a broken robot at EuroReptar Land and has decided to bring his family choose between Tommy, Chuckie, Phil, Lil, Angelica, or Kimi to play as. There are approximately 16 levels, as well as hidden bonus level games. The object of the game is to collect enough gold Reptar tickets to buy the Reptar Helmet that controls a Giant Robot Reptar

The game is a full version and delivered on a genuine NUS-16F32S cartridge with standard CIC-NUS-7101 PAL lockout chip and play

This is a prototype version dated October 16th, 2000. It features English on-screen text. The retail version was released March 30

Note: this is an unfinished, work-in-progress version of the game for evaluation or marketing purpose only. The game is probably buggy if you want to enjoy the full game.

You are bidding for the cartridge only. It works fine as you can see in the photos.
